DEFINITION OF QUALIFIED COMMUNITY REHABILITATION PROGRAM. Pursuant to HRS §103D-1001 Definitions:

“Person with disabilities” means any person who is so severely incapacitated by any physical or mental disability that the person cannot engage in normal competitive employment because of the disability.”

“Qualified community rehabilitation program” means a nonprofit community rehabilitation program for persons with disabilities that:

- (1) Is organized and incorporated under the laws of the United States or this State, and is located in this State;
- (2) Is operated in the interest of and [employs] persons with disabilities;
- (3) Does not inure any part of its net income to any shareholder or other individual;
- (4) Complies with all applicable occupational health and safety standards required by the federal, state, and county governments; and
- (5) Holds a current certificate from the United States Department of Labor pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, Title 29 United States section 214(c), and is certified by the State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations under section 387-9 and applicable administrative rules relating to the employment of persons with disabilities.

HRS §103D-1011 Qualified community rehabilitation program; proposal to provide goods and services. Pursuant to HRS §103D-1011, a qualified community rehabilitation program shall be allowed to sell only goods or services, also to include building custodial and grounds maintenance services, to a governmental body. A proposal shall be submitted to the purchasing agency containing the following information:

- (1) A description of the goods or service;
- (2) The price of the goods or service; and
- (3) Documents and information necessary to qualify as a QCRP under §103D-1001.

HRS §103D-1010 Purchases from QCRP programs. Pursuant to HRS §103D-1010:

- (a) any governmental body, without advertising or calling for bids, may purchase goods or services provided by QCRP serving persons with disabilities that have indicated an interest in supplying the goods or services and on an equitable basis may apportion the business among the interested programs; provided that the goods and services meet the specifications and needs of the purchasing agency and are purchased at fair market price as determined by the appropriate public agency; and provide further that the programs comply with the following:
 - (1) Meet all of the requirements of a qualified community rehabilitation program under HRS §103D-1001; and

- (2) Maintain a disabled to non-disabled employee ratio to or in excess of three-to-one for work hours of direct labor at all times on the work contracted.
- (b) The purchasing agency shall:
- (1) Receive and review proposals submitted by qualified community rehabilitation programs to provide goods or services and determine if they are suitable for purchase by the agency;
 - (2) Negotiate the conditions and terms for the purchase, including the price of the offer, between the agency and the qualified community rehabilitation program; provided that the price of the offer shall not exceed the fair market price and there is assurance that the qualified community rehabilitation program proposal is in compliance with all administrative rules related to purchasing; and
 - (3) Ensure that any goods or services purchased from a qualified community rehabilitation program shall not be placed on the Hawaii products list under HRS §103D-1002, Hawaii products.

ORDER PLACEMENT. Government agencies may enter into a written agreement against which funds are encumbered or against which a purchase order is issued. When a purchase order is issued, include the following information on the purchase order:
