

COST & PRICING

A Case Study on the Cost/Price Analysis of Voting Equipment and Election Services
(For background info, click on link above)

Friday, May 13, 2016
10 am – Noon

State Capitol Auditorium
415 S. Beretania Street

Space is limited to 300 people
Free Admission
CPE Credit: 2 hours

To register, visit the SPO's website:

<http://spo.hawaii.gov/for-state-county-personnel/training/schedule-registration/>

This training is open to the public and will cover:

- Overview of analyzing a proposal
- Tools on how to determine if a proposal price is fair and reasonable
- Different types of comparatives
- Analysis of historical costs, prior invoices, the current market, and other data
- Past Experience of Proposal Analysis
- Questions & Answers

Presenter:

Nancy Evans Tudor, CPA
Managing Member,
Tudor Wilson & Associates, CPAs, LLC

Nancy Tudor served as the expert witness in the administrative review of the procurement of Hawaii's election system contract in 2008. She has 30 years of experience in taxation and accounting, initially as an IRS auditor, and later as a Certified Public Accountant. Ms. Tudor's tax consultation services have included negotiations and analysis of numerous buy-sell agreements, partnership documents, merger and liquidation documents, and analysis of projected financial statements. Her tax and accounting practice serves clients in retail trade, real estate rentals/development, medical and other service industries, and hotel operations. Ms. Tudor's areas of tax expertise include S corporations, partnerships, fiduciary, foreign, and individual income tax, estate and gift taxation.

For More Information:

Contact the
State Procurement Office

Phone: (808)587-4707

Email:
spo.training@hawaii.gov

Website:
<http://spo.hawaii.gov>

